UNITED STATES REPORTED WILLING TO FORGET CAMBODIAN INCIDENT

[redacted]

3 Jan 64 1838

TO Phnom Penh: [M]

Msg Nr: 1/DGP/X

44 USC 2107(5)(g)(2)(D)(i)

I was received this morning, Friday 3 January at 1100 hours by [redacted] Foreign Minister [redacted]. He told me that America is ready to forget entirely the incident with Cambodia since Cambodia has already denied having manifested any rejoicing over the death of [President] KENNEDY. President [redacted] had an interview yesterday with Mr. [redacted] and American Ambassador STEVENSON. The [redacted] [Government] thinks that Cambodia and America will be willing to forget any past incident and so will accept the formula of a joint statement.

President [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] wish sincerely to receive a trusted representative of His Royal Highness in an interview in [redacted]. But if, on the contrary, His Royal Highness wishes for President [redacted] to send a [redacted] representative to Phnom Penh, the President will conform with the desire of His Royal Highness. Meanwhile, the [redacted] Foreign Minister is ordering Ambassador [redacted] to return from [redacted]. Unfortunately [redacted] son just died in an accident in [redacted].
