

NARA_Transparency_Plan_December_2022_FINAL

Category	Description of Information	Classification	Transparency Event	Conditions
1	Social Security Numbers of Living Persons	UNCLASSIFIED	Postponement should extend until one of the following conditions is met: the death of the individual; 100 years from the date of birth of the individual, where that information is known; or, where the date of birth is unknown, 75 years from the date of the document; or, for individuals whose information was maintained in the HSCA Staff Payroll Files, 75 years from the conclusion of the HSCA investigation (2054), whichever occurs first.	Information will be released when NARA determines that one of the specified transparency events has occurred. NARA will conduct a periodic review of the information to determine if individuals are deceased.
2	Bank Account and Credit Card Information of Living Persons	UNCLASSIFIED	Postponement should extend until one of the following conditions is met: the death of the individual; 100 years from the date of birth of the individual, where that information is known; or, where the date of birth is unknown, 75 years from the date of the document, whichever occurs first.	Information will be released when NARA determines that one of the specified transparency events has occurred. NARA will conduct a periodic review of the information to determine if individuals are deceased.
3	Potentially Classified Information in HSCA Audio Recordings	SECRET	Two hi-yield typewriter ribbon cartridges require a review for classified equities and NARA lacks the capability to evaluate the information in its current format.	Information will be released when a process is developed to safely unspool the cartridges and transfer the information to a digital format. NARA is currently developing a procedure.