with him on 8/28/69. DILUGLIO stated MANACCHIO said he was "confused as to what action to take" and when he took care of some personal matters over the next two weeks, he planned to surrender to the FBI. DILUGIIO stated that MANACCHIO is quite concerned about effect of publicity regarding case on aged mother and brother. Dr. ANTHONY MANACCHIO, obstetrician at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence. DILUGLIO contended he did not know whereabouts of MANACCHIO and, if contacted again, will strongly urge MANACCHIO to surrender. DILUGLIO will be contacted further regarding the above information. Also, continued pressure through interviews and fisurs will be conducted on close associates of MANACCHIO in order to effect his arrest through surrender or capture.

Informant for Internal Revenue Service, Providence, R. I., advised that MANACCHIO possibly in Italy and traveled there via Alitalia. Flight records at AL Italia being checked re this possibility at air terminals at New York City and Boston; also passport information re MANACCHIO being checked through WFO.

RAYMOND JOSEPH PATRIARCA, Providence, R. I., en of subject PATRIARCA, contacted 9/4/69 and agreed to wavel to Atlanta, Georgia, and discuss fugitive status of MANACCHIO and VENDI with father, currently incarcerated at Atlanta Federal Penitentiary. RAYMOND JOSEPH stated he feels that "heat" generated by the FBI in fugitive investigation is reflecting adversely on father and other Subjects in this case, stating that certain unnamed citizens in Providence now are saying that "FBI must have good case or MANACCHIO and VENDI would not have run." RAYMOND JOSEPH also stated he hopes his father will okay "passing word down to Providence" to have subjects surrender to FBI in order to quell such talk. This aspect of investigation will be followed closely.

> Investigation concerning subject VENDI is being centered on cooperation being given Bureau Agents by close members of VENDI's immediate family, located in Seekonk and Fall River, Mass., and Barrington, R. I. Extensive background information developed concerning VENDI and leads set forth at Jacksonville, Miami, and Orlando, Florida, where subject recently traveled on vacation and possibly has business interests. Both of subject's ex-wives indicate they will turn subject over if he makes contact. subject's brother, Deputy Chief of Police MIKE VENDITUOLI, Barrington, R. I., who at first was uncooperative in this matter, is now fully cooperative with Bureau Agents and is providing essential background information re subject which is being checked out. 166-4355-26
