

Afghanistan Digest, No. 3, 1985

Text: The War and the Press

Reporter: Well, the Russians have got us pinned down on the side of the mountain at moment, and they're lobbing mor- mortars – that's one just gone off on the top, just over the top here. And down below us on the road there are five Russian tanks; we can't see them because the gorge is very steep. I suppose the main factor about it is that it's very hard-going, it's very mountainous...